

Steven G. Wharton

Associate

s.wharton@tkstlaw.com
404.890.7675

 VCARD  PRINT  DOWNLOAD PDF

Steven G. Wharton ("Steve") is an Associate in the Corporate Section of Thomas Kennedy Sampson & Tompkins LLP. His principal areas of practice include real estate, business law and municipal bond financing.

Steve has negotiated numerous contracts and commercial leases on behalf of large companies, small companies and individuals. He has also assisted entrepreneurs with various matters ranging from structuring their budding businesses to exploring various financing options for obtaining start-up capital.

In addition to being an attorney, Steven is also a Certified Public Accountant. Prior to entering law school, he was a financial auditor with a Big Four accounting firm.

Education

- Rutgers University School of Law, J.D., 2001
- Baruch College, B.B.A., 1994
- Managing Notes & Comments Editor, Rutgers Computer and Technology Law Journal, 2000 – 2001
- Treasurer, Student Bar Association, 2000
- Student Attorney, Rutgers University Community Law Clinic, 2000 - 2001

Professional Experiences & Recognition

- Judicial Intern, the Honorable Joseph A. Greenaway, Jr., U.S. District Court Judge, District of New Jersey
- Judicial Intern, the Honorable Brenda H. Cole, Judge, State Court of Fulton County Georgia.

Activities & Affiliations

- Board Member, Atlanta Interfaith Broadcasters
- Member, Advisory Council, Fulton Leadership Academy
- Member, Real Property Law Section, State Bar of Georgia

Bar Admissions

- Georgia

Practice Areas

- Real Estate
- Business Law
- Estate Planning
- Public Finance

Georgia

- Member, Gate City Bar Association